WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1886.

LOCAL NEWS.

Col. Thompson has our thanks for Eastern newspapers.

The California steamer has not stopped the complaint of dull times.

The display of November meteors has so far been numerous and brilliant.

The usual services will be held at the Lyceum, Fort-street Church and St. Andrew's Cathedral this evening.

The Government schools are to have a week's holidays beginning with Monday the 15th, in honor of the King's Jubilee.

The hour as you please race tonight at the Yosemite rink will be one of the most interesting sporting events in a long time.

Mr. Lowell, a resident of Nawiliwili, Kauai, for over half a century, died on the 22nd ult., over eighty years of age, leaving two sons and one daughter.

The Library Association has just received a contribution of books from Rev. Dr. Hyde, also Cyclopaedia of Universal History (3 vols.), from Mr. H. G. Grable.

Argument was concluded in the admiralty suits yesterday Mr. Neumann replying to Mr. Kinney, then Mr. Dole speaking on behalf of respondents and Mr. Neumann closing on behalf of the libellants.

The Hawaiian Band will play at Kakaako Branch Hospital this afternoon, at H. R. H. Princess Liliuokalani's reception to-morrow afternoon, and at Queen's Hospital Friday afternoon, and at Emma Square Saturday afternoon.

A case of insanity, five charges of drunk, a brace of gamblers, one using vulgar language, and a Japanese charged with assaulting and battering a fellow countryman, made up the entries at the Station up to one o'clock this morning.

A horse pulling a heavy truck, belonging to Schuman & Graham, draymen, was taken with the colic last evening at Wilder's wharf. It rolled around on its back until Mr. Brodie, V. S., arrived. He relieved the suffering animal by "tapping." Later the horse died last night.

Mr. C. Gray and Mr. Rawlins have combined their affairs under the style of the Hawaiian Soap Manufacturing Company. This is an old industry at Lele, its start being noticed in the Friend over thirty years ago. The prospectus of the P. C. A. was published about the same time.

The testimonial to Mr. John Nett, late Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, was presented to him at his house on Monday night, Mr. C. E. Williams being the spokesman. Mr. Nett presented the foreman of each company with framed portraits, and entertained the delegation handsomely in honor of the thirty-first anniversary of his marriage, falling on that day.

Mr. John Cassidy, accompanied by Mr. Norman Logan, of the Bulletin, left town at half-past five yesterday morning, and, after a short call at Honolulu Ranch, reached Waianae at half-past three in the afternoon, having had a splendid day's drive. The Bulletin man ought to make a thorough investigation of Pearl Harbor, bawling of sharks, while in that vicinity.

Mr. Sachs was not responsible for the "side light" thrown on his advertisement yesterday. We hasten to clear him from the responsibility for such an atrocious jest. Only that space was not too plentiful, the attempt at pleasantry should have had the legend attached, "This is a joke." The reference to a rush for the new millinery was in dead earnest, however, as a walk up Fort street this afternoon will prove.

Another Richmond has entered the billiard champion lists in Honolulu, Mr. Morris, who arrived by the Alameda. On Thursday evening he will play a pin pool match with Mr. McCleery at the Commercial billiard room. Both are recognized as chiefs in this game, having come forth tied from a series of four matches in San Francisco. McCleery has the credit of the highest score, 6,300, ever made in a single-handed match.

Mr. Saml. McKeague delivers the DAILY HERALD all over town by horse conveyance, and we believe subscribers will obtain thorough satisfaction from him. It would greatly facilitate delivery if subscribers would place boxes for the reception of their papers at convenient points. Mr. McKeague noticed in one case that just after leaving a paper on a verandah a parcel of playful dogs took it up and gave it a worse handling than it ever expects to receive from its most beligerent contemporary.

PETERSON.

The Advertiser considers the release of Peterson, the defaulting Assistant-Postmaster, a failure of justice. An independent word from that paper nine months ago on the matter would have been more valuable than a column now. Peterson has been in confinement many months for a much smaller offense than he was guilty of. The Advertiser was the only paper given the privilege of full investigation on the discovery of the robbery. Had the independent press had similar opportunities there might have been disclosures that would have compelled the immediate arrest of Peterson, with the certainty that he would have divulged the names of the whole gang that used him and were used by him in the burglary of the Post Office. Having escaped prosecution for burglary, or being accessory thereto, by turning Crown evidence, it would have been only an abortion of justice anyway to have convicted and punished him for embezzlement of a comparatively small amount.

J. H. BROWN,
Agent Board of Health.

New Enterprise.

Mr. C. J. Fishel, while on his recent visit to San Francisco, engaged the services of a first class dressmaker, who will arrive by the Zealandia on the 17th. At the solicitation of many of his lady customers, Mr. Fishel has decided to start a dressmaking department on the second floor of his fine building, corner of Fort and Hotel streets. He personally selected on the Coast an immense stock of dress goods, but was disappointed in only getting a portion of them here by the Alameda. The balance is, however, on board the John D. Spreckels and the Consuelo, so that in all likelihood the stock will be here before the arrival of the lady who is to manage the new department. Mr. Fishel is to be congratulated on this fresh development of his enterprise.

The Miller Robbery.

As anticipated by the police when the HERALD went to press yesterday morning, the robber of Mr. William Miller's house at Seaview was not long in being overtaken. Reporters were in possession of particulars of the robbery for some days, but in the interests of justice withheld them. The property taken consisted of $115 in gold coin, three $10 bills, $50 in silver, two watches, chains, a locket and other jewelry. Frank Davis, who has been run down as the culprit, it is supposed, entered the house on two or three occasions, having watched where Mrs. Miller hid the key when leaving the house temporarily. He is well known to the authorities, having served terms previously as a thief.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

Artists Materials, Picture Frames and Cornices made to order. King Bros., Art Store, Hotel street.

No hand-book excels the Hawaiian Almanac and Annual for reliable statistical and general information relating to these Islands. Price 50 cents.

If you want a good smoke for your money, patronize home industry and call at J. W. Hingley's, Crystal Soda Works, 69 Hotel street.

The Elite Ice Cream Parlors, H. J. Hart, Proprietor. Don't indulge in personalities to mislead the public, but offer their superior Hand-made Ice Cream, Cakes and Candies to one and all. Good quality in everything is our standard motto.

What everybody needs at the present hot spell is something cold and refreshing. There is nothing like the superior hand-made Ice creams, Sherbets and Fruit Ices served at the Elite Ice Cream Parlors, 85 Hotel street. Keep our fancy cakes and candies in mind. They can't be beat.

Try Martindale Cider. It is absolutely pure. Macfarlane & Co., agents.

FOREIGN NEWS.

UNITED STATES.

The Episcopal Convention in session at Chicago elected two Bishops for the missionary jurisdictions of Nevada and Utah, Wyoming and Idaho. Rev. R. M. Kirby, rector of Trinity Church, Pottsdam, N. Y., was elected to the former place and the Rev. Ethelbert Talbot, Rector of St. James, Macon, Missouri, for the last named jurisdiction.

John T. Campbell, an attorney of Santa Rosa, Cal., has been appointed United States Consul at Tamatave, Madagascar.

Geysers have been developed at Summerville, S. C., by the earthquakes. A shock on October 22d made it necessary for 75 chimneys to come down.

The parade of the Knights of Labor held in honor of the delegates from Philadelphia to the Richmond convention, who returned October 22d, was without exception the greatest demonstration of the kind ever seen in Philadelphia. It is estimated that 30,000 men were in line.

St. Louis won the sixth and decisive game of baseball championship from Chicago by a score of 4 to 3.

EUROPE.

Scandal in High Life.

A Berlin despatch of October 23d says: A scandal has been caused in the highest circles by the arrest of Baron Otho Von Schlenitz, a nephew of the deceased Minister of that name, and a member of the Emperor's household. He is charged with acting as agent of a band of men leagued together for the purpose of extorting money from wealthy and high-born persons and with selling forged titles to decorations. Schlenitz was a Captain in the Prussian Guards and he had gambled and run through his fortune. On the discovery of his crime, the police favored his escape to France out of regard for his uncle, who was then alive. Since the latter's death Schlenitz has been traced to England, where he is charged with forging a bill of exchange for 2,400 marks. He has just been extradited. An accomplice named Lang, who was concerned in the forgery, committed suicide upon hearing of Schlenitz's arrest.

The Socialists.

A London despatch, October 22d, says: The question of the moment here is the conflict between the Socialists and authorities concerning the determination of the former to summon a procession of the unemployed to follow in the wake of the Lord Mayor's yearly pageant, on the route from Guildhall to Westminster, on November 9th. The Socialists claim that all the Radical clubs in London are in perfect sympathy with them, and more than 10,000 people will assemble at their summon.

Police Court.

The Samoan question yesterday resolved itself into, "Are you guilty or not guilty?" put by Judge Bickerton to Chas. Samoa. "Guilty, your honor." Fined $5 and costs. Bila, John Campbell and Keoki were given the same penalty for the same charge of drunk. Kealoha and Annie had $33 and $18 respectively to pay for adultery. Wm. Wilson pleaded guilty to assault and battery on J. H. Alling with a dangerous weapon, to wit, a club, in Honolulu on the 30th ult. This is the occurrence reported in Monday's HERALD. The penalty was fine and costs making $23 with hard labor for ten days. Nahinalau is a guard at the lower gate of the Oceanic wharf, and was stationed there Sunday morning on the arrival of the Alameda, with orders from Mr. George Markham, Port Surveyor, to let no Chinese in. Chin Ling, a Chinese merchant, with a friend was inside the gate looking after his freight. The guard pulled his friend out, and then tackled Chin Ling. After abusing the merchant to some extent, Mr. Markham saw the scuffle and ordered the guard to desist, as that Chinaman was a merchant. Fined $6 with $3.20 costs.

Awa was remanded on charge of assault and battery on Nahora Hipa. Frank Davis alias Jas. Smith was charged with larceny, and remanded till 9th inst., at request of prosecution. Possibly the charge may by that time be changed to burglary.

Jubilee Badges.

Mr. Jos. Hubash, jeweler, has got up some handsome gold and silver jubilee medal badges. It is in the shape of a coin the size of a half sovereign and attached to silk ribbon. The obverse side has the King's profile, with "1836" and "1886" on either side and "Nov. 16" beneath. The reverse has the inscription, "I ka Pihana o na Makahiki ke Kanalima o ka Moi Kalakaua," meaning, "In honor of the fiftieth birthday of King Kalakaua." The gold ones are $2.50, the silver $1. Neater souvenirs of the occasion could hardly be devised.

The Best Tonic.

Mr. Henry Billings, Washington, D. C., writes: "I have used your Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky for medicinal purposes. As a tonic I consider it superior to the hundreds of concoctions which are now flooding the land as stimulant liquors."

SIDE LIGHTS.

Mr. C. J. Fishel brought down by the Alameda a portion of his very heavy purchases of millinery and dry goods. He will have a grand opening on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday next. As the goods have been personally selected they are likely to be exactly suited to the Honolulu trade. The early caller will of course have the largest choice, but there is an abundant variety for the taste of all comers.

The Friend has failed to connect with the HERALD this trip.
